ABOUT McLAUGHLIN COLLEGE

Founded in 1968, McLaughlin College was named in honour of the late Colonel R.S. McLaughlin, business pioneer. The College is dedicated to fostering knowledge and critical analysis of public policy. Special attention is given toward improvement of society, the local community, the province, Canada, and international relations. McLaughlin’s founding Master, George Tatham, insisted that the college emphasize the whole person. Therefore, the arts, music, poetry, and athletics all have a prominent place in life at McLaughlin College.

McLaughlin College serves both non-residential and residential students. McLaughlin College's Tatham Hall offers both single and double room accommodation on 13 floors separated into 6 different houses. There are 9 coed floors, 2 all-female floors, and 1 all male floor, all of which are in a non-smoking atmosphere. Each house has a Common Room and kitchenette. The Residence Life Coordinator and Dons work closely with house executives in an active Residence Council.
McLaughlin College Council maintains a high profile in College activities. Our Sport and Recreation Program encourages active participation in all levels of intramural sports activity on the York Campus. Social activities include overnight trips to Montreal and Niagara Falls, monthly events such as coffee houses, art shows, themed weeks and many more special events. McLaughlin's ever popular Kid's Day, where children from local elementary schools come to York University and participate in a variety of activities, is a very rewarding, community-minded tradition.

In the York community of more than 60,000 students, faculty, and staff, McLaughlin College can help you to find your niche and provide a focus for your academic career. There is always an opportunity to get involved and make a difference. Drop by your Student Council Office (room 143 McLaughlin) and let us hear your concerns, suggestions, and yes, even criticisms. Remember, this is your college. Let us know what kind of programming YOU would like to see from your elected Student Government at McLaughlin College. There is so much we can accomplish - but we need your help!

If you would like to become more involved, perhaps running for a position on McLaughlin College Council is an appropriate outlet for your energy. We will be releasing nominations for 3 directors, 2 first year representatives, and a residence liaison in September. There are also many other McLaughlin affiliated clubs and organizations that are looking for helpful spirited members. All information on contacting student run organizations is listed in this handbook. Please feel free to email, drop by, or call any of the groups to find out more information.

About the Residence Life Coordinator

Welcome to all incoming York students and welcome back to all existing students staying in Tatham Hall Residence! We have a vibrant community here at Tatham and we hope you’re just as excited to engage with us and get involved. I hope that while you are here you will grow to call Tatham your second home. Residence is where you are encouraged to be yourself and grow as a person.

As the RLC I oversee the residence community and assist you through your development at York. To help me with this are seven amazing student leaders called Dons. The Dons are here to help you transition into university life and become a strong independent person, ready for the challenges that university can hold. Together we will work to ensure that Tatham is a safe and inclusive space.

As the year moves along there will be many opportunities to become involved in the residence and I highly encourage you to make the most of your time here with us. I recommend that you look over the Residence Handbook and the Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities as they are key tools in ensuring that your transition into living in residence is a smooth one.

Finally, I hope that you find your time here in Tatham to be a rewarding and eye-opening experience that helps you discover your true potential.

Regards,

Residence Life Coordinator

McLaughlin College has an active peer mentoring network which helps students with the transition to university life by connecting first year students with an academically successful upper year student as a mentor. Every entering first year student will be assigned to a mentor, normally in the same program major. Research shows that students who engage and interact with their mentor throughout their first year benefit both psychologically and academically, so please take advantage of this opportunity.

Mentor groups are created for September’s York Orientation Day. First year students will meet their mentors, as well as other members of the mentor group, at the beginning of Orientation Day, and will spend the day together, as the mentors will guide the groups to various events and on a campus tour. By the end of the day, we hope that new relationships will be formed that will help students throughout the coming year.

During the first year, the peer mentor network will organize and present workshops, social events, and social media connections through twitter and Facebook to offer a variety of skills and supports, and to create communities of students helping one another. McLaughlin College also offers the MALL (McLaughlin Academic Life Line) office, which is located on the main floor of the College in the foyer near the entrance doors. Mentors will be in the MALL office from 9:00-4:00 every day from Monday to Friday throughout the academic year for informal drop-in advice.
ABOUT TATHAM HALL RESIDENCE

The residence is named Tatham Hall in honour of the founding Master, Professor George Tatham, who lived in the residence from 1968 until retirement in 1978. He remained a Fellow of the college until he died at the age of 80 in 1987.

Tatham Hall, McLaughlin College’s affiliated residence, is home to 268 students in each academic year. A 13-storey high-rise, the building is divided into six ‘houses’ of roughly 45 students each, sharing kitchen and common room facilities. Accommodations are a mix of single and double rooms; about two thirds of residents are in single rooms. Coed and single-gender housing is available, and offered as an option in the residence application process.

While we are affiliated with York’s public policy college, residents at Tatham Hall are drawn from a range of faculties and disciplines. House and Residence Councils organize frequent programs, from movie nights to campus exploration to trips around the city. The legendary spirit of Tatham students is the envy of York’s other colleges.

The building is staffed by the Residence Life Coordinator (RLC) who is a full time, live-in professional, as well as six student Dons, designated to each house within the building, who all ensure that Tatham residents experience the best possible living and learning community. There are also other student leadership positions, such as the Coordinator of Residence Activities and the Residence Council Chair and Reps, who all help in making the living/learning community at Tatham Hall a success. Residence Life is a program of the department of Student Community and Leadership Development. Residence staff support the academic mandate of the University and McLaughlin College, and they also act as a resource and positive role models for the residents. Like all of York’s residences, Tatham Hall’s entrance is monitored by 24/7 CCTV, and is monitored at night by student Porters as well as a Residence Watch Officer.
ABOUT MCC AND ITS MANDATE

The primary aim of the McLaughlin College Council is to promote the welfare and interests of the students affiliated with McLaughlin College, and to provide services, activities, publications and facilities which serve to enrich the lives and educational experience of the students. McLaughlin College Council’s constitution is regularly updated and is available for viewing online. The Council is made up of 6 executives, 3 directors, 2 first year representatives, a residence liaison, a non-voting YFS representative and 7 associates.

All members of Council are required to hold Office Hours in order to keep the office open during the day and a schedule is posted outside the office each year. The voting members of Council are elected in either the spring annual election in which the executive positions are contested, or the fall by election in which the director positions and first year representative positions are contested.

The President is responsible for overseeing all operations of Council. As well, the President is a member and represents the college in many organizations. The VP of Operations maintains a network of communication between the College Council and the various organizations and facilities within the College, as well as replaces the President in the absence thereof. The VP of Financial Affairs manages and oversees the budgets and accounts of Council. The VP of Academic Affairs is responsible for matters of academic importance pertaining to the students of the college, including student club relations. The VP of Communications coordinates advertising for all Council operations and events. The VP of Commuter Relations represents the best interests of students who do not live on campus. The VP of Events and Programming is responsible for planning and executing social and cultural events. The directors work with their respective Vice-Presidents (VP), and provide assistance with their duties. The two first year representatives promote the involvement of all first year students and represent their best interests to Council. The YFS McLaughlin Representative is contested in the YFS elections, and is a YFS Council member representing McLaughlin College. Associates are comprised of the Speaker, the Chief Returning Officer (C.R.O.,) the Secretary, Kids Day/Outreach Chair(s) the Orientation Chair(s), and the McLaughlin Sports and Recreation Vice President of Athletics.

The Council meets once a week during the Fall/Winter session, and the meetings are open to anyone who would like to attend. The meeting dates and times are set in September, and will be posted well in advance on our website at www.yorku.ca/mcc. Everyone is encouraged to come out and participate at any and all levels of College life. Feel free to stop by our office (RM.143) Monday to Friday 9:00am-6:00pm. The council welcomes all new and old faces, and always promotes inclusiveness, respect, support, and student involvement.
Dear McLaughlin Wolves,

Welcome to McLaughlin College! Whether you’re entering McLaughlin as a commuter, a resident, a mature, transfer, or an international student, I welcome you all with open arms to our diverse and all around inclusive family. I am both excited and honoured to serve the McLaughlin community as your McLaughlin College President for the 2018-2019 year. On behalf of our student council, I welcome you to our home and encourage you to make this your home too. We have a lot planned for this year and we’d love nothing more than for you to join us in making this the most legendary year at McLaughlin. At McLaughlin we make the conscious effort to make everyone feel included, supported, listened to, and comfortable enough to attend events, get involved, and create an impact. You are always welcome to stop by our office at MC 143 for resources, advice, support, or just to hangout and get to know us!

I’d like to share with you a little bit about myself as well as my history here at McLaughlin and how much of an impact this tremendous college has made on my life. I’m currently in my 4th year of Law & Society and yes... I do plan on hopefully becoming a lawyer one day! I began my university career by running for the First Year Representative position on council in my first year in 2015. Joining council was one of the best decisions I’ve ever made in my life, as it allowed me to grow as a leader within the community and create bigger connections that have helped me succeed throughout my university career. By choosing to get involved, I instantly began to feel as if McLaughlin was my home and suddenly that huge scary university began to feel very small. As I progressed through the last 3 years of university, I was able to take on bigger roles such as becoming a RED Zone Student Ambassador, Orientation Chair, and now the College President!

In our first year, we all make a choice. A choice to either stick around and get involved, or just attend class and go home. I made the choice to stick around, and that why I’m here today. I was able to make long lasting friendships, open doors to jobs and positions on campus, and make the most out of my time at university. Whether you’re here for 4 years or more, your years in university are limited. Make those the years in your life that you will always look back on and smile. Make the choice to stick around... even if it’s hard for you to break the ice, I want you to know that I was like that at first and that regardless of wherever you go...you will always be welcomed at McLaughlin. McLaughlin is beyond the typical “go to class, go straight home” type of school. We place a strong emphasis on developing the whole person by encouraging community members to participate in our elaborate intramural sports program, our creative outlet known as Macmedia, a wide variety of student-run clubs and organizations that range from academic help to social justice causes, and train in our very own Dynamacs gym. There’s always a lot to do at McLaughlin, I encourage you to take advantage of all the opportunities!

I hope this letter finds you well, and as always you can find me in the McLaughlin College Council office, at our college gym, cheering on our sports teams, or just roaming around the college! Feel free to stop me whenever and say hello as I love meeting new people. With that being said, I wish you all long term growth, success, and the best of luck in this upcoming year!

Best regards,

WELCOME TO DYNAMACS

What we are..
Dynamacs is a student run gym, located at 018 in the basement of McLaughlin College.

So how did McLaughlin College end up with its own gym? It started with the founding Master of McLaughlin College, George Tatham, arriving in 1966, who believed that the college should be nurturing the development of the “whole person”, and so Dynamacs was built. We aim to strengthen our bodies, just as we strengthen our minds.

Why we're different..
Dynamacs offers a more personal workout space, at a very affordable price. At York, there are several gyms available to students, although we exist on a different scale and in a different time zone than the other gyms. Dynamacs is a more comfortable space, and we rarely see more than a few people at a time. There's a good chance you’ll be working out alone if you’re there in the quieter hours. We just want the community to have access to a fantastic space, without crowds, and where any person in there will leave you alone if you want or support you if you need. We are the only 24-hour gym on campus so Dynamacs is accessible to you 24/7. We maintain the safety of the gym through night hours by having an active volunteer team checking in regularly. We also have a cheap guest pass system, so that you can bring a friend if they’re in town for a few days, or just want to try the space out for a week.

Who I am..
With Dynamacs, you also get me. I’m Matthew Thomson, the Dynamacs Manager. Please feel free to stop by MC 143 to get to know me more, ask me about your fitness goals or learn more about the gym. I’m available to you at all hours of the day, depending on the week. Need a last minute membership? Notice something missing or broken? Shoot me an email and I’ll usually respond right away! This is our gym, but I’ll do whatever I can to make it your gym too.

MACMEDIA’S EDITOR IN CHIEF

MacMedia Magazine has magnificently been representing McLaughlin College for the past 50 years. Throughout this time, MacMedia Magazine has become an integral part of McLaughlin’s fabric and has interwoven itself with the McLaughlin Community through various methods of engagement. This magazine has featured quizzes, editorials, Op-eds, surveys, poetry, art and advice from skilled writers. I am attempting to expand MacMedia’s presence throughout York University’s campus by having it distributed throughout the campus and by publishing it frequently as well. Hopefully, we will publish every month with different topics based on social justice, sexual content, major McLaughlin events, major York University events and will include a variety of topics to satisfy everyone’s taste. We as a magazine are continuously evolving through the active participation of the McLaughlin and York University community. If you have any topics or suggestions for MacMedia Magazine, then please do not hesitate to contact us.

Every year, MacMedia hires new writers who are enthusiastic and excited to contribute towards this magazine. Additionally, we are hiring layout managers, photoshop experts, InDesign experts and other creative beings to contribute towards the artistic portion of this magazine. If you are interested in becoming part of the MacMedia team, then please email your resume and cover letter to macmedia.eic@gmail.com. This is a brilliant opportunity for you to become creative, to meet new people and to strengthen your resume by gaining a robust experience. This year’s “Orange Takeover” will allow froshies to take over their college experience and their campus. With that ambition and planning, MacMedia will take over this campus as well.

McLAUGHLIN COLLEGE STUDENT/FACULTY LUNCH TALKS

The Student/Faculty Lunch Talks gather students, faculty, staff and informed outsiders together to discuss a variety of subjects of interest. Symposia, panel discussions, special guest lectures and seminars are held each term in both the Junior and Senior Common Rooms. You will find that these offerings often complement your credit courses. Your suggestions are invited. Topics often covered include:

• Commentary on federal, provincial, municipal and international elections.

• Canadian public policy (e.g. health, social welfare, education, aboriginal government)

• International political questions (e.g. globalization, Middle East, Europe, development issues)

• Public administration (e.g. innovation, streamlining, effectiveness vs. efficiency)

• Political economy (e.g. inequality in wealth, business-government relations)

• Justice (e.g. Charter of Rights and Freedoms cases, judicial appointments)

To create these talks, the college cooperates with a variety of University student clubs and faculty associations active in the field of public policy. Such groups include the Centre for Refugee Studies and programs in Sociology, Political Science, Public Policy and Administration, Interdisciplinary Social Science, Law and Society, Criminology, Work & Labor Studies and Global Political Studies. These student clubs and faculty organizations provide special expertise to students and others. Further information about our Student/Faculty Lunch Talks may be obtained by contacting the Office of the College Head Administrative Coordinator.

Students who attend at least 6 lunch talks will receive a certificate of participation.

Those who attend more than 10 talks, will receive a certificate of honour.
