The Importance of the Consultation Process in Developing and Implementing Public Policy

Presented by:

Hon. Mr. Justice Michael Tulloch

HON. MR. JUSTICE MICHAEL TULLOCH of the Ontario Court of Appeal has a long and distinguished career of service as a member of the Canadian judiciary, a Crown prosecutor, a lawyer in private practice, and a renowned writer, speaker and professor. Justice Tulloch was appointed to the Ontario Court of Appeal in 2012 after serving as a Justice on the Ontario Superior Court of Justice since 2003. Prior to Justice Tulloch’s judicial appointment in 2003, he served as an Assistant Crown Attorney in Peel and Toronto from 1991 to 1995 before entering private practice where he specialized in criminal law until his appointment to the bench. Justice Tulloch holds degrees in Economics and Business from York University and graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School at York University with a law degree in 1989. He was called to the bar in Ontario in 1991 and he is the first Black judge appointed to the Ontario Court of Appeal.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2019
12:00 PM – 1:30 PM

LIGHT REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED

HOSTED BY THE OFFICE OF THE COLLEGE HEAD, McLaughlin College

SENIOR COMMON ROOM
140 McLaUGHLIN COLLEGE

For further information, please contact:
Vicky Carnevale: ext. 33824 or vcarneva@yorku.ca