ABOUT McLAUGHLIN COLLEGE

Founded in 1968, McLaughlin College was named in honour of the late Colonel R.S. McLaughlin, business pioneer. The College is dedicated to fostering knowledge and critical analysis of public policy. Special attention is given toward improvement of society, the local community, the province, Canada, and international relations. McLaughlin’s founding Master, George Tatham, insisted that the college emphasize the whole person. Therefore, the arts, music, poetry, and athletics all have a prominent place in life at McLaughlin College.

McLaughlin College serves both non-residential and residential students. McLaughlin College’s Tatham Hall offers both single and double room accommodation on 13 floors separated into 6 different houses. There are 9 coed floors, 2 all-female floors, and 1 all male floor, all of which are in a non-smoking atmosphere. Each house has a Common Room and kitchenette. The Residence Life Coordinator and Dons work closely with house executives in an active Residence Council.
McLaughlin College Council maintains a high profile in College activities. Our Sport and Recreation Program encourages active participation in all levels of intramural sports activity on the York Campus. Social activities include overnight trips to Montreal and Niagara falls, monthly events such as coffee houses, art shows, themed weeks and many more special events. McLaughlin’s ever popular Kid’s Day, where children from local elementary schools come to York University and participate in a variety of activities, is a very rewarding, community-minded tradition.

In the York community of more than 60,000 students, faculty, and staff, McLaughlin College can help you to find your niche and provide a focus for your academic career. There is always an opportunity to get involved and make a difference. Drop by your Student Council Office (room 143 McLaughlin) and let us hear your concerns, suggestions, and yes, even criticisms. Remember, this is your college. Let us know what kind of programming YOU would like to see from your elected Student Government at McLaughlin College. There is so much we can accomplish - but we need your help!

If you would like to become more involved, perhaps running for a position on McLaughlin College Council is an appropriate outlet for your energy. We will be releasing nominations for 3 directors, 2 first year representatives, and a residence liaison in September. There are also many other McLaughlin affiliated clubs and organizations that are looking for helpful spirited members. All information on contacting student run organizations is listed in this handbook. Please feel free to email, drop by, or call any of the groups to find out more information.

I am an Associate Professor and former Director, in the School of Public Policy and Administration (SPPA), specializing in Public International Law and, especially, International Refugee Law. I have served with the Centre for Refugee Studies (CRS) at York University and the International Association of Refugee and Migration Judges (IARMJ), and on the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada (IRB), Canada’s largest administrative tribunal.

About the Residence Life Coordinator

Hello and welcome to all York students and to those staying in Tatham Hall Residence for the 2019-2020 year. We have a vibrant community here at Tatham and we hope you’re just as excited to engage with us and get involved. I hope that while you are here you will grow to call Tatham your second home. Residence is where you are encouraged to be yourself and grow as a person.

As the RLC, I oversee the residence community and assist you through your development at York. To help me with this are seven amazing student leaders called Dons. The Dons are here to help you transition into university life and become a strong independent person.

As the year moves along there will be many opportunities to become involved in the residence and I highly encourage you to make the most of your time here with us. I recommend you look over the Residence Handbook (https://reslife.yorku.ca/handbook) and the Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities (https://oscr.students.yorku.ca/csrr) as they are key tools in ensuring that your transition into living in residence is a smooth one.

Finally, I hope that you find your time here in Tatham to be a rewarding and eye-opening experience that helps you discover your true potential.

Regards,

Taylor Morihovitis

MCLAUGHLIN COLLEGE PEER MENTORS NETWORK

We are thrilled to welcome you back to another year at York University’s official public policy college. Our college is home to eight outstanding programs and in turn it produces some of the university’s top academics who will go on to fill high-ranking positions. If you imagine yourself as one of these overachievers, we encourage you to get involved with the official McLaughlin College Peer Mentors Network.

Each year our Network comprises of several dozen carefully selected high-achieving, involved upper-year students that are paired with groups of incoming first years. From orientation day to the end of winter exams, our qualified mentors support our students academically and socially, integrating them into the diverse and rich tapestry that is McLaughlin College. They represent the much-needed bridge between students and administration in the complex “jungle” of post-secondary education.

From September to April you are welcome to access the services of the Network, including peer editing for papers and informal guidance on course selection, by visiting us at the McLaughlin Academic Life Line office (M.A.L.L for short). In addition to drop-in help, our Network is proud to host popular social events, provides a bulletin for college and university events, and partners with the Office of the College Head to spearhead initiatives that benefit all students at McLaughlin College.

We look forward to meeting you this year and remain at your service for all your needs.

Gil Segev and Lucas Amello,
ABOUT TATHAM HALL RESIDENCE

The residence is named Tatham Hall in honour of the founding Master, Professor George Tatham, who lived in the residence from 1968 until retirement in 1978. He remained a Fellow of the college until he died at the age of 80 in 1987.

Tatham Hall, McLaughlin College’s affiliated residence, is home to 268 students in each academic year. A 13-storey high-rise, the building is divided into six ‘houses’ of roughly 45 students each, sharing kitchen and common room facilities. Accommodations are a mix of single and double rooms; about two thirds of residents are in single rooms. Coed and single-gender housing is available, and offered as an option in the residence application process.

While we are affiliated with York’s public policy college, residents at Tatham Hall are drawn from a range of faculties and disciplines. House and Residence Councils organize frequent programs, from movie nights to campus exploration to trips around the city. The legendary spirit of Tatham students is the envy of York’s other colleges.

The building is staffed by the Residence Life Coordinator (RLC) who is a full time, live-in professional, as well as six student Dons, designated to each house within the building, who all ensure that Tatham residents experience the best possible living and learning community. There are also other student leadership positions, such as the Coordinator of Residence Activities and the Residence Council Chair and Reps, who all help in making the living/learning community at Tatham Hall a success. Residence Life is a program of the department of Student Community and Leadership Development. Residence staff support the academic mandate of the University and McLaughlin College, and they also act as a resource and positive role models for the residents. Like all of York’s residences, Tatham Hall’s entrance is monitored by 24/7 CCTV, and is monitored at night by student Porters as well as a Residence Watch Officer.
ABOUT MCC AND ITS MANDATE

The primary aim of the McLaughlin College Council is to promote the welfare and interests of the students affiliated with McLaughlin College, and to provide services, activities, publications and facilities which serve to enrich the lives and educational experience of the students. McLaughlin College Council’s constitution is regularly updated and is available for viewing online. The Council is made up of 6 executives, 3 directors, 2 first year representatives, a residence liaison, a non-voting YFS representative and 7 associates.

All members of Council are required to hold Office Hours in order to keep the office open during the day and a schedule is posted outside the office each year. The voting members of Council are elected in either the spring annual election in which the executive positions are contested, or the fall by election in which the director positions and first year representative positions are contested.

The President is responsible for overseeing all operations of Council. As well, the President is a member and represents the college in many organizations. The VP of Operations maintains a network of communication between the College Council and the various organizations and facilities within the College, as well as replaces the President in the absence thereof. The VP of Financial Affairs manages and oversees the budgets and accounts of Council. The VP of Academic Affairs is responsible for matters of academic importance pertaining to the students of the college, including student club relations. The VP of Communications coordinates advertising for all Council operations and events. The VP of Commuter Relations represents the best interests of students who do not live on campus. The VP of Events and Programming is responsible for planning and executing social and cultural events. The directors work with their respective Vice-Presidents (VP), and provide assistance with their duties. The two first year representatives promote the involvement of all first year students and represent their best interests to Council. The YFS McLaughlin Representative is contested in the YFS elections, and is a YFS Council member representing McLaughlin College. Associates are comprised of the Speaker, the Chief Returning Officer (C.R.O.), the Secretary, Kids Day/Outreach Chair(s) the Orientation Chair(s), and the McLaughlin Sports and Recreation Vice President of Athletics.

The Council meets once a week during the Fall/Winter session, and the meetings are open to anyone who would like to attend. The meeting dates and times are set in September, and will be posted well in advance on our website at www.yorku.ca/mcc. Everyone is encouraged to come out and participate at any and all levels of College life. Feel free to stop by our office (RM.143) Monday to Friday 9:00am-6:00pm. The council welcomes all new and old faces, and always promotes inclusiveness, respect, support, and student involvement.
Dear Wolfpack,

Welcome to McLaughlin College! My name is Alec, and I am both excited and honored to serve the McLaughlin community as your McLaughlin College President for the 2018-2019 year! On behalf of our student council and college, I’d love to introduce you to our home and encourage you to make this your home as well! Whether you’re entering McLaughlin as a first year, a commuter, a resident, a transfer student, or an international student, I welcome you with open arms to our diverse and inclusive family. At McLaughlin, we make the conscious effort to make everyone feel included, supported, listened to, and comfortable enough to get involved and create a lasting impact. We have a lot of exciting things planned for this year and we’d love nothing more than for you to join us in making this another one of the many storied years in McLaughlin’s history. We encourage community members to participate in our elaborate intramural sports program, our very own newspaper MacMedia, a wide variety of student-run clubs and organizations that range from academic assistance to social justice causes, and our very own Dynamacs gym. There’s always a lot to do at McLaughlin, I encourage you to take advantage of all we have to offer you! You’re always welcome to stop by our office at MCC 143 for more information on resources, advice, support, or just to hang out and get to know us!

I’d like to share with you a little bit about myself as well as my history here at McLaughlin and how much of an impact this college has made on my life. I’m currently entering my 5th year at York, and I can confidently say that my time here would not be even remotely the same without the time spent involved with my college. I began my McLaughlin career by running for the Representative position on council in my first year in 2015, following that with taking on larger roles each year, becoming the Director of Finance, Director of Athletics, the Orientation Chair, and now the President! Joining student council was one of the best decisions I’ve ever made, as it gave me the chance to grow within my community and create bigger connections that have shaped me into the leader I am today. Getting involved made me feel as if McLaughlin was my home and that I was contributing to something bigger than myself, and that’s a truly amazing feeling.

When we first enter university, we’re given the choice to either become a student who goes to class and goes home, or a student who becomes immersed in their community and truly experiences everything York University has to offer. At first, I wasn’t very sure what I wanted to do or where I wanted to go. However, during my frosh week, my Orientation Chair pulled me aside and inspired me to stick around and become part of something greater, and to become “the franchise piece” of McLaughlin. He, along with many of the other amazing people around the college, welcomed me with open arms and gave me the confidence and support to get to where I am today. I want to pass on that same bid of faith to you. No matter how long you stay, your years at university are limited. Make the most of those years in your life, because it can blow by so quickly. McLaughlin has the tools to make your time at York some of the best, and it’s up to you to decide whether you take them.

I hope that you find this letter well, and as always you can find me and other council members in the McLaughlin College Council office, in our lounge hanging out, at Tait playing sports, or just roaming around the college and campus! With that being said, I want to welcome you again to our family and wish you nothing but the best in the coming year!

Cheers,

Alec Pichelli

Greetings from your VP of Athletics Elvin Thompson and your Director of Athletics David Wu! We are honored to be selected as this year’s 2019–2020 Athletic Representatives for McLaughlin College.

Our goal for this year is to take the current athletics program at Mac and improve it by developing our culture, bringing new ideas & convincing constituents around the Mac community why coming out and at least trying to play sports and getting involved around the intramural community can potentially change their entire university experience for the better. When entering university, varsity teams are not the only way sports can be played competitively, as York is known to be one of the largest intramural schools in Canada. There are tons of students who love playing sports, however some may lack the knowledge about what intramurals are all about. There are sports for the competitive athlete, and also those for people who just want to play for the fun of it and have a fun way to relieve stress during the year. There is many different leagues, drops-ins and events that will be offered through our athletics program, and with so many options you’re bound to find one that’s meant for you!

What makes our athletics program very special is that we have the only other gym on campus which is led by Matthieu, our Dynamacs Manager who has dedicated his time to reshape Dynamacs into an accessible and inclusive workout space, and helping constituents around the community achieve their fitness goals. We also host a number of recreational events, like tournaments for Smash Bros., NBA 2K, FIFA, League of Legends, and also casual game nights. McLaughlin is a college which has tons of talent, and it’s our job to show you why it would be worth a shot to come out and participate in intramural sports. Our goal is to get as much of the community involved in sports as possible as sports has been known to connect others around the community, make new friends, and create lasting bonds and memories. We encourage everyone to come out and play a sport and participate in our recreational events. Intramurals welcomes everyone!

WELCOME TO DYNAMACS

What we are..
Dynamacs is a student run gym, located at 018 in the basement of McLaughlin College.

Why we’re different..
Dynamacs offers a more personal workout space, at a very affordable price. At York, there are several gyms available to students, although we exist on a different scale and in a different time zone than the other gyms. Dynamacs is a more comfortable space, and we rarely see more than a few people at a time. There’s a good chance you’ll be working out alone if you’re there in the quieter hours. We just want the community to have access to a fantastic space, without crowds, and where any person in there will leave you alone if you want or support you if you need. We are the only 24-hour gym on campus so Dynamacs is accessible to you 24/7. We maintain the safety of the gym through night hours by having an active volunteer team checking in regularly. We also have a cheap guest pass system, so that you can bring a friend if they’re in town for a few days, or just want to try the space out for a week.

Who I am..
With Dynamacs, you also get me. I’m Matthew Thomson, the Dynamacs Manager. Please feel free to stop by MC 143 to get to know me more, ask me about your fitness goals or learn more about the gym. I’m available to you at all hours of the day, depending on the week. Need a last minute membership? Notice something missing or broken? Shoot me an email and I’ll usually respond right away! This is our gym, but I’ll do whatever I can to make it your gym too.

MACMEDIA’S EDITOR IN CHIEF

MacMedia is the official magazine of York University’s McLaughlin College. Over 50 years ago MacMedia started as the official student newspaper for McLaughlin College and grew into the most significant student ran magazine on campus. MacMedia is meant to support and represent McLaughlin College and its students. It is published monthly throughout the school year as a result of the dedicated work of a small team of selected members and the generous funding of the McLaughlin College Students’ Council and the McLaughlin College Master’s Office. The team of editors and writers behind MacMedia works together to create new themes every month that range broadly throughout the year, from the fun to the political, the bawdy and the absurd. Everyone is welcomed to express their aspirations, concerns, views and imaginings through MacMedia. We also host events that help raise money for charitable associations; the events tend to match the theme for the month and are composed of different activities that also promote the magazine. This school year, MacMedia is going to focus more on our social media presence and our events. We hire staff every year to contribute, further build and improve MacMedia. If you have a passion for design, writing, editing, photography or just got ideas to share, don’t hesitate to contact us at macmedia.eic@gmail.com. Contributing to the magazine will further develop your creativity and add to your university experience as a whole. Supporting MacMedia is a way of supporting the big McLaughlin family. This new school year will bring many opportunities for all the students and the college as well, let’s all enjoy it together!

McLAUGHLIN COLLEGE STUDENT/ FACULTY LUNCH TALKS

The Student/Faculty Lunch Talks gather students, faculty, staff and informed outsiders together to discuss a variety of subjects of interest. Symposia, panel discussions, special guest lectures and seminars are held each term in both the Junior and Senior Common Rooms. You will find that these offerings often complement your credit courses. Your suggestions are invited. Topics often covered include:

• Commentary on federal, provincial, municipal and international elections.

• Canadian public policy (e.g. health, social welfare, education, aboriginal government)

• International political questions (e.g. globalization, Middle East, Europe, development issues)

• Public administration (e.g. innovation, streamlining, effectiveness vs. efficiency)

• Political economy (e.g. inequality in wealth, business-government relations)

• Justice (e.g. Charter of Rights and Freedoms cases, judicial appointments)

To create these talks, the college cooperates with a variety of University student clubs and faculty associations active in the field of public policy. Such groups include the Centre for Refugee Studies and programs in Sociology, Political Science, Public Policy and Administration, Interdisciplinary Social Science, Law and Society, Criminology, Work & Labor Studies and Global Political Studies. These student clubs and faculty organizations provide special expertise to students and others. Further information about our Student/Faculty Lunch Talks may be obtained by contacting the Office of the College Head Administrative Coordinator.

Students who attend at least 6 lunch talks will receive a certificate of participation.
